Dear David

Thank you for playing with your jazz quartet at our Alumni Reunion on 1 March. We very much appreciated your professionalism and the outstanding quality of the music.

With around 150 attendees at this event, I heard many positive comments about the talent of the musicians and their obvious level of experience. The music you selected and performed was very appropriate for the event and the band's effort to dress in line with the 1920s theme also helped set the mood.

One of the major advantages you offered us in booking a band for the event was your ability to call on a wide range of musicians, to customise the composition of the band to meet our needs. Our original order called for a trio, however you made it effortless for us to increase this to a quartet. You were able to accommodate our request for a double-bass player, as well as recommending a banjo player to suit the theme of our event. Your advice was spot on and I noticed the appropriateness of the banjo during several songs on the evening – the banjo player was also an excellent singer.

We noticed in particular your work ethic – although we did not expect it of you, we noticed that the band skipped one of its scheduled breaks and played continuously for one and a half hours. Attendees were enjoying the music so much that we asked if the band could play on for another half hour at the end of the evening. You were able to provide an instant quote and the band's energy and enthusiasm did not flag.

Thanks again to you and the members of the band. I will certainly give you a call if I need to book a band again in future.

Yours sincerely
